Comtech Telecommunications Corp. Announces Senior Vice President of Operations to Retire

MELVILLE, N.Y., Jan 28, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Comtech Telecommunications Corp. (Nasdaq:CMTL) announced today that Frank Otto will retire as Comtech's Senior Vice President, Operations, effective February 5, 2010, to accept a new position with a local not-for-profit organization known as the Long Island Forum for Technology (LIFT). Mr. Otto has served in his current capacity with Comtech since April 2008. For the past two years, Mr. Otto served as Voluntary Chairman of LIFT.

In announcing Mr. Otto's retirement, Fred Kornberg, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Comtech Telecommunications Corp., said, "The Board of Directors and I are very appreciative of Frank's contributions during his time at Comtech. We wish him continued success in the future and look forward to working with him as part of his new role at LIFT."

Comtech Telecommunications Corp. designs, develops, produces and markets innovative products, systems and services for advanced communications solutions. The Company believes many of its solutions play a vital role in providing or enhancing communication capabilities when terrestrial communications infrastructure is unavailable, inefficient or too expensive. The Company conducts business through three complementary segments: telecommunications transmission, mobile data communications and RF microwave amplifiers. The Company sells products to a diverse customer base in the global commercial and government communications markets. The Company believes it is a market leader in the market segments that it serves.
