Comtech Telecommunications Corp. Receives $13.5 Million Contract for High Power Amplifiers

MELVILLE, N.Y., Feb 1, 2005 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Comtech Telecommunications Corp. (NASDAQ: CMTL) announced today that its New York-based subsidiary, Comtech PST Corp., has received a contract not to exceed $13.5 million, with initial funding of $6 million, from a domestic OEM to supply high power radio signal jamming amplifiers. The contract is expected to be definitized within 45 days.

Last month, Comtech received a $2.1 million contract from this OEM for the same type of amplifiers. The amplifiers are key components in jamming systems used to counter the threat of improvised explosive devices. Delivery of the amplifiers under this new contract are expected to begin in late fiscal 2005.

Fred Kornberg, President and Chief Executive Officer of Comtech Telecommunications Corp., said "Our continuing participation in this critical program allows Comtech to showcase its technical and high volume production capabilities, as well as provide an important technology in protecting troops from the threat of improvised explosive devices."

Comtech PST Corp. (www.comtechpst.com) is a leading independent supplier of broadband high power, high performance RF microwave amplifiers for use in a broad spectrum of applications including high power instrumentation, defense, medical, and satellite communications systems.

Comtech Telecommunications Corp. designs, develops, produces and markets innovative products, systems and services for advanced communications solutions. The Company conducts its business through three complementary segments: telecommunications transmission, mobile data communications, and RF microwave amplifiers. The Company offers niche products, systems and services where it believes it has technological, engineering, systems design or other expertise that differentiate its product offerings.
